

FORENSIC, VALUATION AND LITIGATION

▶ Simplify complex matters with our team of advisors.

Litigators turn to Anders to measure economic damages. Outside legal counsel turns to us when they suspect wrongdoing and need forensic investigation. Family lawyers look to us to trace assets in divorces. And business owners and individuals look to us when they want clear-cut honest guidance on the value of their companies.

In the background as investigators and analysts, or on the front lines delivering expert testimony, we have worked with attorneys and clients on cases ranging from business valuations and disputes to fraud investigations and family law matters. These are multifaceted engagements that demand the right kind of expertise. We take the time to understand each case, and provide careful assistance throughout the process.

LITIGATION AND DISPUTE SERVICES
