

ANDERS FORENSIC, VALUATION AND LITIGATION

VALUATION

A valuation requires an intricate combination of financial analysis and opinion, combined with facts and professional judgment. Our valuation professionals have the expertise and resources to provide a credible, cost-effective and pragmatic valuation of a business enterprise, an ownership interest, or a business' underlying assets. We understand how key trends impact value and the tax and regulatory environments.

Businesses and individuals turn to us for help with valuations for financial reporting, corporate tax planning and compliance, trust and estate tax reporting, shareholder and succession planning and litigation matters.
